23 August 2019

To: Parish Priests and House Superiors of Religious Institutes /
Societies of Apostolic Life / Personal Prelature

Dear Reverend Father / Brother / Sister,

Peace!

Cardinal John Tong, our Apostolic Administrator, is appealing to all the faithful to pray especially for the recovery of the society of Hong Kong at the Masses on 25 August, the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time:

1. For the people who are wounded in body, mind or spirit

In the last two months the furore over the proposed amendment to the Extradition Bill has wounded the body, mind or spirit of many. May the Lord show abundant mercy, help us repair what has been torn, heal what has been injured, and lead us through the impasse. We pray to the Lord.

2. For the society of Hong Kong

May God lead people from every sector of our society to make use of every opportunity to manifest their good will, to engage in earnest dialogue, and to be reconciled to one another, so that our society may return to the right path as soon as possible. We pray to the Lord.

God bless.
