ENTRANCE ANTIPHON (Cf. Eph 4:24)

Put on the new man, created in the image of God in righteousness and holiness of truth.

R. Amen.

R. And with you spirit.

Priest: Dear elect, godparents, teachers(catechists) and representatives of the faithful, let us give thanks to God for the day has come. Now we may come to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation. (omit the Penitential Act and the Kyrie)

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

COLLECT

O God, who bring us to participate in the mystery of the Passion and Resurrection of your Son, grant, we pray, that, strengthened by the spirit of adoption as your children, we may always walk in newness of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING (I shall pour clean water over you and you shall be cleansed of all your sins.)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel (36:24-28)

Thus says the Lord:

I will take you away from among the nations, gather you from all the foreign lands, and bring you back to your own land. I will sprinkle clean water upon you to cleanse you from all your impurities, and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

I will give you a new heart and place a new spirit within you, taking from your bodies your stony hearts and giving you natural hearts.

I will put my spirit within you and make you live by my statutes, careful to observe my decrees. You shall live in the land I gave your fathers; you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

—The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (42:3; 43:3, 4)

R. My soul is thrusting for the living God. (Ps 42:3a)

Athirst is my soul for God, the living God. When shall I go and behold the face of God? (R)

Send forth your light and your fidelity; they shall lead me on, and bring me to your holy mountain, to your dwelling-place. (R)

Then will I go in to the altar of God, the God of my gladness and joy; then will I give you thanks upon the harp, O God, my God! (R)

SECOND READING (We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that we too might live in newness of life.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans (6:3-11)

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absolved from sin. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus. —The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (See Col 2:12)

R. Alleluia, alleluia!

We were buried with Christ in baptism, in baptism we have been raised with him. (R)

GOSPEL (No one can see the Kingdom of God without being born from above.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (3:1-6)

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. He came to Jesus at night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God, for no one can do these signs that you are doing unless God is with him.”

Jesus answered and said to him, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless one is born from above, he cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man once grown old be born again? Surely he cannot reenter his mother’s womb and be born again, can he?”

Jesus answered, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless one is born of water and Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God. What is born of flesh is flesh, and what is born of spirit is spirit.”

—The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Priest: Almighty God and Father, you have created water to cleanse and give life. In the waters of Jordan your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Spirit, so that we might all be baptized in the Holy Spirit. Your Son willed that water and blood should flow from his side as he hung upon the cross, so that from his Death and Resurrection the Church might be born.

Come to us, Lord, Father of all, and make holy ✠ this water which you have created, so that all who are baptized in it may be washed clean of sin, and be born again to live as your children.

Make this water holy ✠, Lord, so that all who are baptized into Christ's death and resurrection by this water may become more perfectly like your Son.

(The celebrant touches the water with his right hand and continues:)

Lord, make holy this water which you have created, so that all those whom you have chosen may be born again by the Holy Spirit, and may have a portion among your holy people.

You have called your children to this cleansing water that they may share in the faith of your Church and have eternal life. By the mystery of this consecrated water lead them to a new and spiritual birth. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

PREFACE I OF THE SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For through his Paschal Mystery, he accomplished the marvelous deed, by which he has freed us from the yoke of sin and death, summoning us to the glory of being now called a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for your own possession, to proclaim everywhere your mighty works, for you have called us out of darkness into your own wonderful light.

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts . . .

(In the Eucharistic Prayers there are proper intercessions.)

(In the intercessions of Eucharistic Prayer II, after the words and all the clergy, the following is added:)

Remember also, Lord, the newly baptized who, through Baptism and Confirmation, have today been joined to your family, that they may follow Christ, your Son, with a generous heart and a willing spirit.

Remember also our brothers and sisters...

(Before the Behold the Lamb of God, the Celebrant may briefly address the newly baptized about receiving their first Communion and about the excellence of this great mystery, which is the climax of Initiation and the center of the whole of Christian life.)

COMMUNION ANTIPHON (Cf. 1 Jn 3:2)

Now we are God's children, and what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Grant, O Lord, that by the power of this Sacrament we, who have proclaimed in celebration the glorious mystery of your Son's Death and Resurrection, may also profess it by our manner of life. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.
