Moonlight Speech

Dear children,

I hear your voices. Mine is only a single voice. But what resounds here is the voice of the whole world; here all the world is represented. One might even say that the moon rushed here this evening – Look at her high up there – to behold this spectacle. This is how we close a great day of peace ... of peace!

"Glory to God and peace to men of good will"

these words is the response to your homage. My own person counts for nothing – it is a brother who speaks to you, who has become a father by the will of the Lord ... but everyone together, in paternity and fraternity, and the grace of God, everything, everything ...

Moonlight Speech

...Let us continue, therefore, to love each other, to love each other so, by looking at each other in our encounters with one another: taking up what unites us and setting aside anything that might keep us in a bit of difficulty

Moonlight Speech

This evening the spectacle offered to me is one that will remain in my memory as it will in yours. Let us honour the images of this evening!

Moonlight Speech

When you go back home, you will find your children: and give them a hug and say, "This is a hug from the Pope. You will find some tears that need to be dried: speak a good word: "The Pope is with us, especially in times of sadness and bitterness."
